

HARRY S. TRUMAN—EIGHTY-FIFTH
BIRTH ANNIVERSARY

April 25, 1969
[H. Con. Res. 216]

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the Congress of the United States hereby extends to the Honorable Harry S. Truman, 33d President of the United States, its best wishes on the occasion of his 85th birthday, May 8, 1969.

Best wishes from Congress.

SEC. 2. The Congress expresses its appreciation to President Truman for his distinguished service as United States Senator, as Vice President of the United States and as President of the United States during the period from 1935 to 1953.

SEC. 3. The Congress expresses its appreciation for President Truman's determined and firm policies in respect to foreign affairs which, with invaluable bipartisan support, (1) helped in the immediate years after World War II to reconstruct a ravaged and weakened Western Europe; (2) firmly set the face of the United States against aggression in both Europe and Asia; and (3) provided desperately needed technical aid and other assistance in the best tradition of American generosity to developing nations struggling to create free and prosperous and democratic conditions for their peoples.

SEC. 4. The Congress further recognizes that President Truman no less heeded the plight of all Americans whom prosperity and justice had passed by and that he boldly advocated programs designed to translate the promise of a bountiful America into fulfillment for each and every American.

SEC. 5. A copy of this concurrent resolution of the Congress of the United States shall be promptly transmitted to the distinguished "Man from Independence," Harry S. Truman.

Copy to Harry S.
Truman.

Passed April 25, 1969.
